In 1954, following both World War II and the Korean War, the word "armistice" was changed to "veterans" to honor veterans of all American wars.

The day Veterans Day was celebrated moved a few times over the years, but President Gerald Ford moved it back to its annual observance on the Nov. 11 date by 1978.

Is Veterans Day different from Memorial Day?

Besides being observed in two different months and two different seasons, the set purpose of Veterans Day and Memorial Day is not the same.

Memorial Day is observed annually on the last Monday of May and is meant to honor all who have served and given their lives for their country.
